We hosted our LEO Club members and their parents for a special recognition celebration so we changed our meeting location to the library annex on 5th street. President Cindy opened the meeting at 6:05 PM with 31 Lions, 38 LEOs, their parents, and guests present. LEO President Zayden Lutz led the Pledge of Allegiance.

GUESTS:

- LEO club members and their parents.
- District LEO Chair Rhonda Campbell, and Janice Shuff
- Zane Trace Middle School Principal Brett Mavis, Secretary B J Tripp and husband, and Counselor Barb Adcock.

PROGRAM:

President Cindy turned the meeting over to LEO advisor Lion Nicole Wells. Lion Nicole called LEOs forward to receive a variety of awards for their service during the school year. Special recognition was given to the club officers, general membership awards for service hours, LEO convention attendance, work at the Humane Society, work at the Lions first and second fish fries, first aid kit assembly, and flower planting/trash clean up on the school grounds. The LEOs received a round of applause for their service work, their dedication, and outlook as future Lion leaders. Awards were also given to Principal Brett Mavis, Secretary B J Tripp, and Counselor Barb Adcock.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION:

President Cindy surprised Lion Nicole with a special Lion of the Year Club Award for her work in establishing our LEO club and work on numerous projects throughout the year.

CONCERNS:

- Lion Neal Senff had surgery today. He is home resting.
- Lions Gary Warner, Dave White, Gene Oliver, and Tom Gustin continue to need our prayers.
- Lion Gene Oliver's wife is in the hospital.

GOOD NEWS:

- Lion Queen Lester was at the meeting and doing very well following her hip surgery. She thanked everyone for the cards and visits.
- Lions Joe's, Brett's, and Jane's mother is doing well.
- Thank you to the library for the use of their facility.
